

Tackling Fires Safely

fire extinguisher questionnaire

Name

Department

Date

1. Which side of the fire triangle does CO2 (carbon dioxide) remove?

- Heat
- Fuel
- Oxygen
- Fuel and Oxygen

6. What is likely to happen if you use WATER on 'live' electrical equipment ?

You are likely to be electrocuted!

.....
.....
.....

2. Tick the icons that you will find on a FOAM fire extinguisher?

7. How long does a WATER extinguisher last (approx) ?

- 30 seconds
- 1 minute
- 2 minutes
- 3 minutes

3. If the fire continues to grow despite your efforts you should?

- Get another extinguisher
- Get closer to the fire
- Leave the area, closing doors and windows as you go
- Get some help

8. Where should you start fighting a fire that is growing upwards?

- At the top
- At the bottom
- In the middle
- It doesn't matter

4. What colour is used to identify the FOAM extinguisher?

- Blue
- Red
- Black
- Cream

9. Which side(s) of the fire triangle does the Dry Powder extinguisher remove?

- Heat
- Fuel
- Oxygen
- All of the above

5. What must be your main consideration when attempting to fight a fire?

- Someone knows what you are doing
- That you have more than one extinguisher
- Personal safety and the safety of others
- Having the correct extinguisher

10. Which extinguisher(s) are suitable for fighting fires that involve flammable liquids?

- Water
- Foam
- CO2
- Dry Powder